

A photograph of a stone building with a steep, grey-shingled roof. A weather vane is mounted on the peak of the roof. The building's facade is made of rough-hewn, light-colored stone. There are two windows with metal grates and a dark door at the bottom center. A small sign is visible on the wall to the right of the door. The building is surrounded by lush green trees and foliage.

Wochenschluss
Andacht in St. Jost
– immer Sonnabends
17 Uhr!